

Perfect Memories Wedding Blog

Planning. Design. Travel. Wedding inspiration for brides-to-be.

Friday, February 8, 2008

Driving distance honeymoons: Buhl Mansion, Sharon, Pa.

Only 70 miles north of Pittsburgh, Sharon, Pa., certainly qualifies as driving distance. But as a honeymoon? With a stay at Buhl Mansion Guesthouse & Spa, absolutely.

Buhl Mansion was built in the late 19th century by local steel magnate Frank H. Buhl and opened as an inn and spa in 1996 by Jim and Donna Winner, who restored the once abandoned property to its original glory. With just ten rooms, each one unique and luxurious, the award-winning Buhl Mansion is a great place for a quiet, relaxing honeymoon--or even a mini-moon.

Every room at the mansion features a gas fireplace and a jacuzzi for two for a romantic getaway. Guests can indulge in a couples massage at the full-service spa, browse the on-site art gallery and enjoy amenities included with their stay, including a welcome tray, champagne reception and breakfast.

Buhl Mansion offers a limousine shuttle to its sister property, Tara, where you'll find gourmet and casual dining options as well as a museum collection of Civil War and "Gone With The Wind" memorabilia. Other local activities near Sharon include shopping and golfing.

About Perfect Memories

Perfect Memories Event Planning & Marketing plans corporate, non-profit and private events, including weddings, in Western Pennsylvania, including Pittsburgh, Wexford, Cranberry and Butler. We also offer marketing & creative services for events and organizations. Our wedding planning blog features inspiration, advice and tips for Pittsburgh brides and others planning weddings. Visit our Web site for more details.