Captain's Inn at Moss Landing, Moss Landing, California

"A unique feature of this fine inn is the boathouse beds," says Melanie Gideon, innkeeper at the Captain's Inn at Moss Landing. "Each room has a bit of nautical whimsy." That's the unique touch you'll find, when you two head for romance on Monterey Bay, in California. "You can walk while holding hands to the sandy beaches of Monterey," Melanie adds. But you can enjoy those sunsets right from your room. "Our boathouse building has very romantic baths with a view," she says. "Large soaking tubs surrounded by Italian tile, come with sea salts for your soak, with plenty of room for two. From the tub you can watch wildlife and the tide." There is nothing missing from the inn's list of luxurious amenities, including in-room massage. The fresh, home-made breakfast is the finishing touch.
